

7 March 1977

Admiral Turner,

Thank you for letting me
see your remarks. Attached draft indicates some alternative phrases you may wish to consider.

Andrew T. Falkiewicz
A/DCI

REMARKS FOR SWEARING-IN CEREMONY

Mr. President, Mr. Justice White, Distinguished Guests, Members of the Intelligence Community of the United States.

Mr. President, I want to thank you for your confidence in entrusting to me the responsibility of guiding the Intelligence Community of our nation. I pledge to you my every effort in fulfilling your mandate. From my years of association with our Intelligence Community, as a user of the products of intelligence, I can confidently assure you that the professional men and women of the Intelligence Community will be determined to provide you with that objective intelligence which you need to guide the course of our country in the world.

Men and women of the Intelligence Community: I ask your full loyalty and support. I pledge to you my full loyalty and all my effort to work with you in proudly exercising our professional skills to the best advantage of our country.

It is now my great honor to introduce to you the President of the United States, The Honorable Jimmy Carter.